

Lucinda Verge-Wallace

Paralegal

Terri Janke and Company Pty Ltd

Ms Lucinda Verge-Wallace is a final year combined Bachelor of Business and Bachelor of Laws student at the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS). Lucinda joined Terri Janke and Company in July 2011 as a Paralegal and is completing her Practical Legal Training (PLT) with the firm.

Qualifications and Awards

- Winner, Henry Davis York Senior Negotiation Competition, 2010
- Certificate of Leadership from the UTS Faculty of Law
- NSW Drivers Licence, class C P2
- Youth Prize (Ages 18-35) Glebe Art Show, 2007

Expertise and skills

- Legal research and support
- Document editing
- Research papers
- Marketing and communication
- Alternative Dispute Resolution processes

Volunteer Roles

- Receptionist, Inner City Legal Centre, Kings Cross
- Sponsorship Officer, Australian Law Students Association (ALSA) 2009-10
- Marketing Officer, Australian Law Students Association (ALSA) 2008-09
- Internal Marketing Officer, UTS Law Students Society (UTSLSS) 2009

Background

Lucinda's extra-curricular activities at the University of Technology are many and varied; editor for University newsletter The Buzz and creator of ALSA international newsletter Imprimatur, judge for the Henry Davis York Senior Negotiation Competition and teaching first year law students as part of the Student Mentor Program. Lucinda has experience as an Executive Assistant in Compliance at WPS Financial Group, as paralegal at Verge Whitford & Co, a Fashion Buying Intern at David Jones and as Assistant to the Director of International Sales at Willow Ltd. Lucinda spent the second half of 2010 on International Exchange in the Netherlands and is also studying Italian at the University of Sydney.