

Lucinda Edwards

Solicitor

Terri Janke and Company Pty Ltd

Lucinda graduated in 2005 with a Bachelor of Laws degree from the Australian National University. After graduation, Lucinda travelled to Europe and worked for a leading London art publisher. On her return to Australia Lucinda was the legal counsel for the Copyright Agency Limited (CAL). Lucinda joined Terri Janke and Company in July 2011.

Qualifications

- Law Society of NSW, Unrestricted Practising Certificate
- Bachelor of Laws, Australian National University, 2005
- Bachelor of Arts (English), Australian National University, 2005
- NSW Drivers Licence, class C

Professional Memberships

- The Law Society of New South Wales
- Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand (IPSANZ)
- Copyright Society

Areas of practice, expertise and skills

- Intellectual property and copyright
- Negotiating and drafting licence agreements
- Rights clearances for publishing, film and TV industry
- Digital licensing, internet terms of use and privacy
- Pursuing intellectual property infringements
- Corporate governance
- Writing and public speaking
- Legal, database, internet research

Background

Lucinda is completing a Masters of Law part time at the University of New South Wales, with a specialty in Media and Technology Law. She has a cameo appearance in the 2011 Underbelly series as a dancer and in her spare time Lucinda enjoys swing dancing, adventure racing, ocean swimming, travelling, drawing and sewing.