

Terri Janke and Company

Lawyers and Consultants

About Us:

Terri Janke and Company is an Indigenous owned law firm that empowers clients to achieve success in business and innovation. Our expertise include Commercial Law and Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property (ICIP). We strive to offer the best service and reliability to our clients. Founded in April 2000, the firm has been operating for over 16 years. We've worked with Indigenous organisations and entrepreneurs, corporates, and government organisations. We work nationally and internationally, and have the capacity to deal with large scale projects.

Our Services Include:

Commercial Law:

- ASIC Compliance
- Government and IPP Opportunities
- Leases
- Drafting contracts
- Legal training
- Business establishment and transfer
- Employment
- Commercial Agreements and legal structures

Intellectual Property

- Trade Marks
- IP Management Plans
- Advice on infringement
- Copyright
- Permission and Release Forms
- Policy Drafting

Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property:

- Indigenous heritage
- Research Agreements
- Traditional Knowledge and Traditional Cultural Expression
- Cultural Protocols
- Access and Benefit Sharing
- Community Engagement and Consultation

Governance & Mediation:

- Constitution Drafting & Review
- Conflict of Interest
- Resolving Indigenous Employment and Contractor Issues
- Drafting Governance Documents
- Conflict Resolution
- Mediation

Workshops & Public Speaking:

- Law Way: Indigenous Business and the Law
- Looking Out for Business
- Key Note Presentations
- True Tracks: Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property for Business
- Looking Out for Culture
- Public Speaking

